I agree my product will meet the following:

- Inclusion of the Free RPG Day logo on the front or back of the product.
- No MSRP anywhere on the product (or a MSRP of $0.00 can be listed).
- If an independent RPG, the product should include quick start rules at minimum, with a STRONG recommendation to include an adventure and pregenerated characters to create a complete demo package for the consumer and retailer --- whereby 50% of the product will include never-before-seen material.
- 100% never-before-seen material if purely an adventure module.
- Minimum page count of 16 pages (with or without cover, though we recommend a 10pt C1S color cover).
- Print and/or PDF versions of the product will NOT be disseminated anywhere else until SATURDAY, JULY 1, 2017.
- Will arrive NO LATER than FRIDAY, MAY 5, 2017!
